You can only get as many Robux every second of gameplay. If you can unlock a certain amount of Robux in one session. You can also unlock all races but the free robux generator will still work. The best way to get free robux There are 3 ways that you can get free robux on Roblox and those are: The first way is to use the free robux generator. The second way is to get robux from the Free Shop. And the third way is the most expensive way and that is to "Buy Robux" from robux store. The free robux generator are by far the best when you compare them to the methods below. We already know what the methods are, but let's go over them anyway. The first method is also very easy to use, as you need to connect to the internet. However, this method is tricky and the only downside is that it can only be used on 1 account at a time. The second method works as well, and I will show you how to use it. There is one downside and that is that you need to upgrade your account to premium to use this method. When you do this, you will get many additional ways to earn free robux. However, you will be needing Robux to buy Robux. The third method is also very similar. However, there is one major disadvantage that I want to explain to you. Yes, you have to spend money on buying robux. The only difference is that with this method you are getting free robux as well as spending real money. And to be frank, is that I really recommend you to get from the third method? The reason is that you will be earning quite a lot of free robux and it will allow you to make the first 2 methods free. And once you get in the habit of doing those 2 methods, you will get more free robux and you will no longer need to buy free robux to keep doing the free robux generator. Now you might be asking yourself, how do the 3 methods work? I will discuss that soon
