The first location of Miami's popular taco chain, Tacos Por Favor, will open at 3015 NW Third Ave. Tuesday. "We are very excited and honored to be opening our second location in Miami's

Pinnacle Center," the chain's owner and founder Hector Talavera said in a statement. "We look forward to bringing more Mexican flavors to the Miami area." The new Mid-Dade location - the first in the city - is 10,000 square feet compared with 6,000 square feet at its Miami Beach location. "We are thrilled to add yet another neighborhood location for Tacos Por Favor," said Bobby Miller, CEO of Cincinnati-based Conrad Properties, which owns Pinnacle Center. Also opening in November at 3015

NW Third Ave. is the locally owned Hard Rock Café, which will also take up 5,500 square feet of space at the center. Cinco J's, a locally owned T-shirt store also announced it will open next month in the same location. Other new tenants set to open at Pinnacle Center are a bowling alley, Sonic, Face

Place optometry and J&J Optical. The Grandstand outside the mall has been renovated, with upgrades such as new electronic signs and digital marquee advertising, while in the center, the fountain has been reimagined and has added a new brass band, acrobatics and more. Conrad Properties is also preparing to open Asian Fusion restaurant Sushi of Naples in the plaza across from Ferrari World. For more on the restaurant, visit www.sushinapoles.com. And plans for the store include a sushi deli and a counter service restaurant. Pinnacle Center, which is on more than 40 acres
